The 100% Syrah 2017 Cotes du Rhone is a bargain superstar, offering hints of smoke, cracked pepper, blueberries and black olives. It's medium to full-bodied, with a long, supple finish. For the $20 (or less) I've seen it selling for, you're not going to find a better Syrah.

SAINT COSME Côtes du Rhône 2017 – 88 points

“The 100% Syrah 2017 Côtes du Rhône offers lots of Syrah dark fruits, pepper, and earthy minerality as well medium-bodied richness, a fine thread of acidity, and terrific balance. It's not going to make old bones but is one delicious mouthful of a wine.”

James Suckling

SAINT COSME Côtes du Rhône Saint-Cosme 2017 – 91 points

“Beautiful, garrigue herbs and flowers across fragrant, red berries. The palate has a very deep-set, plush and ripe core of dark-berry flavors, amid glossy, ripe tannins. Great value.”

Winston Salem Journal

Winston-Salem Journal – February 27, 2019

Michael Hastings, the food editor for the Winston-Salem Journal, a daily newspaper in North Carolina, selected the SAINT COSME Côtes du Rhône Saint-Cosme 2016 as his daily wine pick. He writes:

“The Saint Cosme 2016 Côtes du Rhone (France, $14) has earthy and peppery aromas, with blackcurrant/raspberry fruit and a touch of licorice. A solid Cotes du Rhone at this price.”

Grape Live – February 27, 2019

In “Wine of the Day: February 27, 2017,” Grapelive reviews SAINT COSME Côtes du Rhône Saint-Cosme 2017, noting that it is “always a wine of value and purity it gives a ton of character, personality and never disappoints in any vintage, and this one is an exceptional year.”

Syrah Queen – February 13, 2019

A recent blog post, "Valentine's Day Pairings – All You Need is Love, Wine and Netflix," features wine pairings for on-screen couples from several popular shows on Netflix. For Jim & Pam from The Office, the writer suggests Cotes-du-Rhone, and specifically recommends the SAINT COSME Côtes du Rhône Saint-Cosme 2017, describing it as "fresh, lively, and full of personality." The post includes a prominent photo of the bottle next to several red roses.

In "Here Are Some Very Good Value Priced Wines," Tom Marquardt and Patrick Darr from MoreAboutWine.com review 10 great value wines. The duo writes: "These are wines we have tasted year after year and which never fail to please." Among their reviews:

CHÂTEAU DE SAINT COSME Cotes du Rhone 2017

"Yes, you can buy good French wine under $20. Just look to the Cotes du Rhone where syrah, grenache, mourvedre and other grape varieties combine to create tasty wines with the acidity you need to pair them with grilled foods. We love the Gigondas made by this producer, but the value is in its simple Cotes du Rhone."
