

Saint Joseph 2018

Jeb Dunnuck

AOP Saint-Joseph, Saint-Cosme, rouge, 2018 - Rating 89-91

The 2018 Saint Joseph comes all from the northern part of the Northern Rhône and offers more peppery stems, violets, and herbal notes as well as a medium-bodied, fresh, elegant style on the palate. With fine tannins and rock-solid overall balance, it should end up being an outstanding wine.

SAINT COSME Saint-Joseph 2018 – 92 points

“Black raspberries and flecks of violet candy perfume this feather-edged Syrah. It’s pillowy soft in mouthfeel but accented by streaks of cassis acidity and a subtly smoky, granite finish. Approachable in youth, the wine will improve through 2028 and hold further.””
