

Condrieu 2013

Wine advocate

89- 91 Starting with the white, his 2013 Condrieu is beautiful, and should be in the same league as his 2012. Classy, fresh and focused, with lots of pineapple and tangerine notes, it's medium-bodied, laser focused and yet still has notable richness.

While Barruol's Gigondas releases get all the buzz, he makes some fine Northern Rhône's as well. Drink: 2015 - 2018

Wine spectator

ST.-COSME Condrieu 2013 – 93 points