Wine spectator

91 points - Juicy, with good weight to the core of heather, peach, nectarine and tangerine notes, laced with piecrust and almond details. Stays fresh and racy through the finish, revealing a buried quinine accent. Drink now. 2,500 cases made.

CHÂTEAU DE SAINT COSME Côtes du Rhône Blanc 2015 – 89 points

“Displays aromas of ripe citrus and pit fruits, along with suggestions of honey and white flowers. Supple orange and nectarine flavors tighten up in the midpalate, gaining a refreshingly bitter pear skin quality that adds a dry, firming edge. Finishes supple and floral, with no rough edges and good persistence.”
